Music for All returns to Muncie for 2017 Summer Symposium National Music Camp

INDIANAPOLIS – Central Indiana will again host the largest national weeklong summer music camp for students and teachers, June 24-July 1 at Ball State University in Muncie. Music for All, one of the nation’s largest and most influential organizations in support of music education, will return to Muncie for the seventh summer with its 42\textsuperscript{nd} annual Music for All Summer Symposium, presented by Yamaha.

More than 1,500 high school and middle school band and orchestra students and high school and middle school band directors are expected at the Symposium. The full week camp is June 26-July 1. The Symposium also offers a weekend of student leadership training June 24-25. Enrollment puts the Symposium on track to be the largest Music for All camp since 2007.

The Symposium typically brings together student musicians and educators from as many as 33 states and abroad. Students learn from top music educators in divisions that include concert band for both high school and middle school, marching band, jazz band, orchestra, percussion, color guard, drum major, and, new to the Symposium this year, the Peer Teaching Program. High school and middle school band directors and instructors can choose from several educators’ tracks that hone their professional skills. Student leadership training is a theme that runs throughout all divisions of the Symposium.

The evening concert series of world-class artists and events sets the Music for All Summer Symposium apart. This year’s evening concert and event series includes:

Yamaha Young Performing Artists -- Monday, June 26, 8 p.m. at Emens Auditorium. Admission to this concert is free, balcony seating only for non-campers.

Rodney Marsalis Philadelphia Big Brass -- Tuesday, June 27, 8 p.m. at Emens Auditorium. Tickets are $15, available at camp.musicforall.org/concerts or Emens ticket office.

U.S. Army Jazz Ambassadors-- Wednesday, June 28, 8 p.m. at Emens Auditorium. Admission to this concert is free, balcony seating only for non-campers. You can pick up your complimentary ticket prior to the performance at the Emens Auditorium ticket office.
