

Kelly Reeves Athletic Complex Hosts Texas Dairy Queen[®] Bands of America Championship Sept. 26

Prominent event is one of 19 regional championships held across the country this fall

Austin, TX – Outstanding high school marching bands from throughout Texas will compete in one of the nation's most prominent championships, Texas Dairy Queen[®] Bands of America Regional Championship at Austin, presented by Yamaha, at Kelly Reeves Athletic Complex (10211 West Parmer Lane) in Round Rock, TX, on September 26th.

The championship event, hosted by McNeil High School Band, will feature 27 high school marching bands in the preliminary competition, all of which will be evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 10 bands will advance to the evening finals competition, which will ultimately name the Regional Champion. Hillje Music will be the Official Music Store for the event.

"Bands of America Championships are a program of Music for All, which has a mission to create, provide and expand positively life-changing experiences through music for all," said Eric L. Martin, President and CEO of Music for All. "This being our 40th year of Bands of America Championships, we're looking to provide more unique opportunities for thousands of students to showcase the dedication, teamwork and mastery required and fostered through music and arts education."

Schedule

The preliminary competition begins at 9:15 a.m. and will conclude at approximately 4:45 p.m. Gates will open for the finals at 6:45 p.m. with performances beginning at 7:45 p.m. All times are tentative pending the final schedule of performing bands. Current times will be listed at musicforall.org.

Ticket information

Ticketing and schedule information is available online at musicforall.org or by calling 800.828.2263. Tickets will also be available at the gate. Standard general admission is $17 for preliminaries or finals, or $26 for a day pass to both. Children ages 10 and under are free for general admission seats. A $5 off any general admission ticket (individual preliminaries, finals or full day passes) discount will be available at the gate for college students, spectators 11-18 years of age, military members and spouses (military ID required) and spectators age 62 and over.

Bands of America Championships

In addition to this event, other Texas Dairy Queen® Bands of America Championships, presented by Yamaha, will be held in Texas this fall. McAllen ISD Bands will present the next event on September 26, at the Veterans' Memorial Stadium in McAllen, TX. Woodlands College Park High School Band will present an event on October 3 at the Woodforest Bank Stadium in Conroe, TX, followed by a show hosted by the University of Texas-Arlington on October 10. Lastly, there will be a two day Super Regional at the Alamodome in San Antonio October 31-November 1. Music for All's Bands of America Super Regional Championships attract bands from across the nation and make each venue a destination for these world-class high school band events. Up to 60 bands will perform in a two-day preliminary competition with approximately 12-14 bands advancing to finals.

About Music for All
