FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Outstanding high school marching bands from throughout Illinois, Kentucky, Missouri and Ohio will compete in one of the nation’s most prominent marching band championships, Music for All’s Bands of America (BOA) Regional Championship, presented by Yamaha, at Kettering Fairmont High School in Kettering, Ohio on Saturday, September 21.

Fifteen high school marching bands are scheduled to perform in preliminary competition, evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 10 scoring bands will advance to the evening finals competition, at the conclusion of which the Regional Champion will be named.

The championship is being hosted by Kettering Fairmont High School music boosters. The University of Dayton will perform in exhibition at Finals.

“Bands of America Championships are a program of Music for All, whose mission is to create, provide and expand positively life-changing experiences through music for all,” according to Eric L. Martin, President and CEO of Music for All. “Active participation in music and arts is a vital part of a meaningful educational experience. The thousands of students who will perform at this championship showcase the dedication, teamwork and mastery required and fostered through music and arts education.”

Preliminary competition is from 12:00 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Gates open for finals at 6:45 p.m. with finals performance from 7:45 p.m. to 10:30 p.m. All times are tentative pending the final schedule of performing bands. Check musicforall.org for current times.

Ticket and schedule information is available online at musicforall.org or by calling 800.848.2263. Tickets are available at the gate on the day of the event. Standard general admission prices are $14 for prelims or finals, or $22 for a day pass to both. All children ages 10 and under are free for general admission seats. Event day ticket discounts are available at the gate for spectators 11-18 years old and college students who can receive $7 off any General Admission ticket type: individual Prelims, Finals or General Admission Day Pass. Seniors 62 and over get $3 off the applicable adult ticket price, as do active duty military members and their spouses (military ID required).
