

The Alamodome hosts Bands of America Super Regional Championship November 1st and 2nd

Prominent event is one of 17 regional championships held across the country this fall

SAN ANTONIO, TX – Outstanding high school marching bands from throughout Texas and Missouri will compete in one of the nation’s most prominent championships, Music for All’s Texas Dairy Queen® Bands of America Super Regional at San Antonio, presented by Yamaha, at the Alamodome (100 Montana Street) in San Antonio, TX on November 1st and 2nd.

The championship event, hosted by UT San Antonio and Winston Churchill High School, will feature 65 high school marching bands in the preliminary competition, all of which will be evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 14 bands will advance to the evening finals competition, which will ultimately name the Super Regional Champion.

“Bands of America Championships are a program of Music for All, which has a mission to create, provide and expand positively life-changing experiences through music for all,” according to Eric L. Martin, President and CEO of Music for All. “Active participation in music and arts is a vital part of a meaningful educational experience. The thousands of students who will perform at this championship showcase the dedication, teamwork and mastery required and fostered through music and arts education.”

Schedule

The preliminary competition begins Friday, Nov. 1 at 11:00 a.m. and will conclude at approximately 8:15 p.m. The preliminary competition will resume on Saturday Nov. 2 at 7:30 a.m. and conclude at 3:45 p.m. Gates will open for the finals at 6:15 p.m. with performances beginning at 7:15 p.m. The University of Texas at Austin will perform in exhibition at the conclusion of prelims and the Texas State University Marching Band will perform in exhibition at the conclusion of finals. All times are tentative pending the final schedule of performing bands. Current times will be listed at musicforall.org.
