

Bowman Grey Stadium hosts Bands Of America Marching Band Super Regional Oct. 18th and 19th

Prominent event is one of 17 regional championships held across the country this fall

WINSTON-SALEM, NORTH CAROLINA – Outstanding high school marching bands from throughout North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Virginia, and Tennessee will compete in one of the nation's most prominent championships, Winston-Salem Super Regional, presented by Yamaha, at Bowman Grey Stadium (1250 S. Martin Luther King Jr.) in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, on October 18th and 19th.

The championship event, hosted by UNC Pembroke and Carolina Gold Drum and Bugle Corps, will feature 36 high school marching bands in the preliminary competition, all of which will be evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 12 bands will advance to the evening finals competition, which will ultimately name the Regional Champion.

"Bands of America Championships are a program of Music for All, which has a mission to create, provide and expand positively life-changing experiences through music for all," according to Eric L. Martin, President and CEO of Music for All. "Active participation in music and arts is a vital part of a meaningful educational experience. The thousands of students who will perform at this championship showcase the dedication, teamwork and mastery required and fostered through music and arts education."

Schedule

The preliminary competition on Friday, October 18th begins at 6:00 p.m. and will conclude at approximately 8:15 p.m. On Saturday, October 19th, the preliminary competition begins at 8:00 a.m. and will conclude at approximately 4:45 p.m. Gates will open for the finals at 6:45 p.m. with performances beginning at 7:45 p.m. The University of North Carolina at Pembroke marching band will perform in exhibition at the conclusion of the preliminary performances and the Wake Forest University marching band will be performing in exhibition at the conclusion of finals. All times are tentative pending the final schedule of performing bands. Current times will be listed at musicforall.org.
