

The Alamodome Hosts Super Regional Marching Band Competition on November 4th and 5th

Prominent event is one of 20 regional championships held across the country this fall.

SAN ANTONIO, TX – Outstanding high school marching bands from throughout Texas and Alabama will compete in one of the nation’s most prominent championships, Music for All’s Bands of America Super Regional Championship at San Antonio, presented by Yamaha, at the Alamodome (100 Montana Street San Antonio, TX 78203) in San Antonio, TX on November 4 and 5.

The championship event, hosted by Claudia Taylor Johnson High School Band and Boosters, will feature 63 high school marching bands in the preliminary competition, all of which will be evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 14 bands will advance to the evening finals competition, which will ultimately name the Super Regional Champion. Hillje Music will be the Official Music Store of the event.

“Bands of America Championships are a program of Music for All, supporting our mission to create, provide and expand positively life-changing experiences through music for all,” according to Eric L. Martin, President and CEO of Music for All. “Active experiences in music and the arts are integral to providing students with a well-rounded education. The thousands of students who will perform at this championship showcase the results that come from the dedication, teamwork and mastery required and fostered through music and arts education.”
