

BUTLER UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MUSIC

DEAN'S

SCHOLARSHIP

As part of the partnership between Butler University and Music for All, the Butler University School of Music is pleased to announce the opportunity for current high school juniors who participate in the Music for All National Festival in March 2018 to audition for a Dean's Scholarship for Woodwinds.

Scholarships will be half to full tuition!

BUTLER UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF MUSIC

DEAN'S

ELIGIBILITY:

Woodwind students who are high school juniors in spring 2018; participating in the Music for All National Festival in March 2018 at Butler (either in an honors ensemble or as part of a school ensemble performing in the festival). Must plan to enroll in fall 2018 as a Music major.

HOW TO APPLY:

Students interested in auditioning for this scholarship opportunity should apply online at butler.edu/music/MFA. As part of the application process, students will need to submit a recording, by either uploading a video recording (audio-only recordings are not acceptable), submitting a link to a YouTube performance, or mailing a DVD (CDs are not acceptable).

In addition, a letter of recommendation is required from the student's music teacher (a private lesson teacher is preferred), as well as a high school transcript.

DEADLINE:

Application and all supporting materials must be submitted by 5:00 PM (EST) on February 2, 2018.

HOW IT WORKS:

After all applications and recordings have been reviewed, three to five finalists will be selected to audition live during the 2018 Music for All National Festival. The actual audition date and time will be determined by the student's schedule during the Festival. Award recipients will be announced during the Festival. These scholarships are non-binding, although the University will request written acceptance of each award.

ADDITIONAL DETAILS:

Students who receive awards must complete their Butler University application by the Early Action Deadline of November 1, 2018. The students must declare Music as their primary major on their Butler University application; a live audition is required for admittance into the School of Music.
