

American Fork High School Hosts Regional Marching Band Competition on November 4

Prominent event is one of 20 regional championships held across the country this fall

St. George, UT – Outstanding high school marching bands from throughout Utah, Arizona, Nevada, Washington, Idaho, Colorado, California, and Texas will compete in one of the nation’s most prominent championships, Music for All’s Bands of America Utah Regional Championship, presented by Yamaha, at the Desert Hills H.S. Stadium (828 Desert Hills Dr. E) in St. George, UT on November 4.

For more than 40 years, Bands of America Championships have been offered across the nation, attracting participation by the nation’s finest bands and scholastic music programs, making Bands of America events the best recognized and most acclaimed evaluative competition for high school bands. Music for All holds 20 other Bands of America regional marching band championships across the country that offer positively life-changing experiences for students, teachers, and fans and spectators. These championships are a celebration of music education at its finest, showcasing excellence, teamwork, and leadership.

The championship event, hosted by the American Fork High School Band and Boosters, will feature 31 high school marching bands in the preliminary competition, all of which will be evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top 10 bands will advance to the evening finals competition, which will ultimately name the Regional Champion.

“Bands of America Championships are programs, supporting our mission to create, provide and expand positively life-changing experiences through music for all,” according to Eric L. Martin, President and CEO of Music for All. “Active experiences in music and the arts are integral to providing students with a well-rounded education. The performances of students at this Bands of America championship showcase the results that come from the dedication and teamwork necessary for the achievement of excellence, on the performance field and in life beyond. Bands of America events advocate for maintaining and growing our national commitment to music and arts education, with the student performers making the case in the most visible, artistic, and entertaining way possible, – something each and every America should witness and experience”.
