ALAMODOME HOSTS BANDS OF AMERICA MARCHING BAND CHAMPIONSHIP FRIDAY AND SATURDAY OCT. 29-30

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE – Outstanding high school marching bands from throughout Texas and Oklahoma will compete in one of the nation’s most prominent marching band championships, Music for All’s Bands of America (BOA) Super Regional Championship, presented by Yamaha, at the Alamodome on Friday and Saturday, October 29-30. The dome is located at 100 Montana St., San Antonio, Texas. The Winston Churchill High School band program and boosters are hosting the event.

The 54 high school marching bands will perform in preliminary competition, evaluated by a panel of nationally recognized music educators and marching band experts. The top scoring bands will advance to the evening finals competition, where the Super Regional Champion will be named. The University of Texas at Arlington marching band will perform in exhibition at the conclusion of preliminary competition on Saturday at 3:45 p.m.

“The marching bands performing in this BOA Championship are some of the finest and most talented in the region, including former Regional and Grand National Champions,” said Travis Tester, Manager of Participant Relations for Music for All. “The thousands of student performers have worked long hours and dedicated themselves to the pursuit of excellence in preparing for this event.”

Gates open on Friday for prelims at 12:45 p.m., with competition beginning at 1:15 p.m. Gates open on Saturday for prelims at 7:00 a.m., with competition beginning at 7:45 a.m. and the presentation of awards at 4:00 p.m. Gates open for finals at 6:15 p.m. with the
